

Retail Buyer

Sarnia Duty Free is an independent family-owned retailer located in Point Edward (Sarnia), Ontario. Our progressive management style has resulted in numerous accolades including worldwide Airport/Land-based Retailer of the Year in 2003, plus 8 Platinum Awards as best land border duty free shop in Canada.

The position of Retail Buyer will assist and report to our lead buyer. Product segments covered may include casual clothing, accessories, jewelry, watches, confections, souvenirs and travel conveniences. Our facility includes a 14,000 square-foot duty free retail store and rest stop services.

Preference will be given to candidates with experience in retail buying and merchandising, including general assortment planning, product research, turnover management and supplier negotiations covering product, price, place, terms, promotional programs, and replenishment. Previous experience working in a chain store environment and completion of in-house retail training programs would be an asset. The ideal candidate will have college or other formal education in purchasing, retail management or business administration. Strong analytical skills are required including proficiency using Microsoft Office Suite including Excel, Word and PowerPoint.

The selected candidate will demonstrate a confident and professional demeanor, and the ability to work collaboratively with others in a team atmosphere. Some travel will be required for periodic trade shows and supplier meetings.

Candidates should reply in confidence to Sarnia Duty Free.

- Respond to: info@bridgedutyfree.com
- Candidates should not contact the company directly about this position except to apply using the stipulated email address.
- Resumes and Cover Letter must be in PDF Format to be accepted.